Respected Sir

GENERAL SECRETARY
S K MEHTA

GECNIT Raipur Alumni, Bhilai Chapter, in association with लघु उद्योग भारती भिलाई युनिट has taken initiative for "Hunting Innovative Talents (H.I.T)" for engineering students of Chhattisgarh. As we all aware the technical project is part of curriculum of engineering course and each engineering students show knowledge and innovativeness in this projects. Most of the projects remain in the memoirs of student and institution but benefits of projects seldom reach to society. GECNIT Raipur Alumni, Bhilai Chapter has decided to provide a platform for college students of Chhattisgarh to showcase their innovative projects/models to society. It is worth-while to mention that GECNIT Raipur alumni have around 1000+ technocrats associated with the Bhilai Chapter.

SECRETARY
S JAMULKAR
MS. S.LAKSHMI
N.K.GUPTA

लघु उद्योग भारती भिलाई युनिट and Shelter Education and Environment (SEE) has agreed to associate with the initiative and also assured to assist in exploring the commercial viability of projects.

TREASURER
JPS CHAUHAN

Sir, CSVTU is excellently performing in making best engineers from Chhattisgarh and we all are grateful to your contribution to society. We expect participation of technical institution affiliated with CSVTU for entry of two best selected projects from the last session of 6th, 7th and 8th semester from each institution.

All the selected projects will be scrutinised by committee of expert academicians/technocrats/industrialist.

We request your guidance and support to spread awareness about the competition to take advantage of this opportunity through active participation and create a niche among the large gathering of technocrats.

With best regards

Sd,
Vice President
